2019 Winter Commencement

FHTC conferred over 60 students at its Winter Commencement ceremony on December 20 at the Humanitarian Center in Emporia, Kans. FHTC alumnus and senior engineering manager for Simmons Pet Foods in Emporia, Joey LeMay, gave the commencement address. The pinning ceremony for Practical Nursing students was also held that day.

Included in the graduating class were five USD 253 employees who graduated with honors from Business Technology. They completed their associate of applied science degree in only a year and a half all while continuing to work full time. We are happy they chose FHTC advance their education and careers and are proud of all our graduates' accomplishments!
