2021 Wrangler Rally

This year's Wrangler Rally saw over 330 high school students from 28 area schools visit campus to learn more about FHTC.

The annual high school visit day was divided into four days, one day for each division, during November.

At registration, students indicated an area of interest and spent their visit day interacting with FHTC instructors and students, viewed demonstrations and were able to participate in hands-on activities.

GIVING TUESDAY

The Flint Hills Technical College Foundation joined in the global Giving Tuesday movement on November 30 and successfully raised $10,520 to benefit students of FHTC.

Through the generosity of donors and Mike and Ida Kerbs, who matched gifts up to $2,500, the campaign yielded double the original goal for the day of $5,000.

Wrangler SPC Conference

Area superintendents, principals and counselors met on campus for the annual Wrangler SPC Conference on December 1. Attendees had a full day of presentations, learning more about CTE programming and FHTC.

The Value of Course Evaluations!

At the end of each course, every student has the opportunity to provide feedback to their instructors on the courses they have taken. This feedback helps the instructor continue the elements that are working to improve student learning and target areas that might benefit from some updating or different teaching strategies. As a student, you are in the unique position to provide your instructors with a different point of view on the courses you have attended.

Some of you may be currently taking or may take in the near future, a course that incorporates peer evaluation. You will often learn that the best feedback provides at least one to two things that are done well, followed by the one or two items that can be improved upon. There is always room for growth and framing feedback with a positive connotation can increase the impact of the feedback as a whole.

We encourage all of our students at FHTC to take the time to provide feedback to their instructors on the courses you are taking.

FHTC has a goal to improve student learning, and we can only continue to achieve that goal by keeping the lines of communication open to our students! So in the last few weeks of the semester be sure to log into your my.fhtc.edu account, click on forms along the middle of the screen, then student forms in the left-hand navigation menu. Select “course evaluation” and then follow the instructions to evaluate your courses. You have the opportunity to provide feedback with agree/disagree statements and type in specific feedback. Remember—highlight what was done well and what FHTC can do better.

Wishing all students the best during these last few days of the semester. Congratulations to all of our winter graduates and wishing everyone a safe and joyful break before next semester!
